Bolshoi in Cinema: ROMEO AND JULIET

NEW PRODUCTION, LIVE FROM MOSCOW!

Music: Sergei Prokofiev, Choreography: Alexei Ratmansky

In Verona, Romeo and Juliet fall madly in love while their respective families, the Montagues and the Capulets, are caught in a bitter rivalry ending in heart-wrenching tragedy. Alexei Ratmansky, former artistic director of the Bolshoi Ballet, stages the company's premiere of his production with dramatic urgency and a fresh re-telling of Shakespeare's beloved classic. His brilliant and detailed adaptation set to Prokofiev's romantic and cinematic score, reignites the story of literature's most celebrated star-crossed lovers like no other classical ballet choreographer today.

NT Live: JULIUS CAESAR

by William Shakespeare

Broadcast live from The Bridge Theatre, London.

Directed by: Nicholas Hytner

Starring: Ben Whishaw (The Danish Girl, Skyfall, Hamlet) and Michelle Fairley (Fortitude, Game of Thrones), David Calder (The Lost City of Z), David Morrissey (Hangmen, The Walking Dead)

Caesar returns in triumph to Rome and the people pour out of their homes to celebrate.

Alarmed by the autocrat's popularity, the educated élite conspire to bring him down. After his assassination, civil war erupts on the streets of the capital. Nicholas Hytner's production will thrust the audience into the street party that greets Caesar's return, the congress that witnesses his murder, the rally that assembles for his funeral and the chaos that explodes in its wake.

APRIL

Sunday, April 8 - 12: 55p.m.

Bolshoi in Cinema: GISELLE

Music: Adolphe Adam, Choreography: Yuri Grigorovich, Libretto: Theophile Gautier and Jean-Henry Saint-Georges

When Giselle learns that her beloved Albrecht is promised to another woman, she dies of a broken heart in his arms. While Albrecht grieves, she returns from the dead as a Wili, a vengeful spirit meant to make unfaithful men dance until death. Prima ballerina Svetlana Zakharova personifies this ultimate ballerina role in the classical repertoire, alongside the sensational Sergei Polunin as Albrecht, in this chilling, yet luminous ballet that continues to captivate audiences for over 150 years at the Bolshoi.

Saturday, April 28 - 12:55 p.m.

Met Live: Jules Massenet, CENDRILLON

“Glorious,” raved the New York Times when Joyce DiDonato sang the title role of Cendrillon at the Royal Opera in 2011. “Her performance was thoroughly enchanting.” Now, for the first time ever, Massenet’s sumptuous take on the Cinderella story comes to the Met, with DiDonato starring in the title role. She is paired with mezzo-soprano Alice Coote in the trouser role of Prince Charming, Kathleen Kim as the Fairy Godmother, and Stephanie Blythe as the imperious Madame de la Haltière. Bertrand de Billy conducts Laurent Pelly’s imaginative storybook production.

Bolshoi in Cinema: COPPÉLIA - LIVE FROM MOSCOW!

Music: Leo Delibes, Choreography: Sergei Vikharev, Libretto: Charles Nutter and Arthur Saint-Leon

Swanhilda notices her fiancée Franz is infatuated with the beautiful Coppélia who sits reading on her balcony each day. Nearly breaking up the two sweethearts, Coppelia is not what she seems and Swanhilda decides to teach Franz a lesson. The Bolshoi's unique version of Coppélia exhibits a fascinating reconstruction of the original 19th century choreography of this ebullient comedy. The company's stunning corps de ballet shines in the divertissements and famous "dance of the hours."
